

SAUTERNES

"HOMMAGE À ANTOINE COPEL"

(TRIBUTE TO ANTOINE COPEL)

The plot, whose planting is estimated in 1896, is located on the hillside of Boutoc, close to the vineyard of Yquem. A wine of exception and collection in tribute to the one whose signature adorns the labels of the range.

The vine was uprooted in 2023, making this wine a unique historical testimony.

Average age of the vines : > 100 ans

Manual harvest with selection of botrytised grapes

Fermented and aged in new French oak barrels during 47 months

Vintage 2019 (bottled in September 2023)

100% Sémillon

Production : 300 numbered bottles

Packaged in individual wooden box

Golden yellow color. The nose is rich and complex with aromas of candied citrus, yellow peach, apricot, pineapple and spices. The palate is exceptionally dense, creamy, with a great purity of texture and aromas. The finish is endless on an unprecedented freshness with regard to the richness of the liquor. A unique balance in the history of Sauternes. The quintessence of Sémillon on its greatest terroir, a moment of meditation.
